The Adventure of The Copper Beeches Open Questions

1. Violet Hunter says, "...my mind is made up that I will accept it...." (Rucastle's offer) before she even asks Holmes's opinion. Why didn't she at least wait for Holmes's opinion before making up her mind?

Violet Hunter was a very headstrong and confident woman. She would have accepted even in the face of Holmes's advice to the contrary and wanted Holmes to know that.

2. Watson says, "...we heard the baying of a hound, and then a scream of agony..." He was referring to Carlo, the mastiff. What is unusual about that?

A mastiff is not a hound and is unlikely to bay. It might growl or roar or bark, but not howl.
