

First of all, thank you again for giving a small rural school the opportunity to share Sherlock Holmes with our students.

Our new books were displayed in the library so that our entire junior high and high school could have access to the books purchased.

Along with the display, our Pop Culture Club dedicated an entire month of meetings in April to compare and contrast Doyle's characters in today's culture versus the original versions.

Mrs. Thomas, the Pop Culture Club sponsor, shared with me that the members really enjoyed this topic.

She also stated that it gave the kids a more academic focus, as they had to read Doyle's books in order to participate in the meetings.

Over the course of the year, each book purchased from the grant monies was checked out at least once.

In fact, from a report pulled from the library system, forty-two students checked out Sherlock Holmes books throughout the year.

These books will now be put on a shelf dedicated to Sherlock Holmes, so that students can continue to easily check them out and continue to enjoy this modern classic.

Sincerely,
Amber Nash, North Greene High School
