The Return of Sherlock Holmes

Adventure XXXII -- The Adventure of the Priory School

1. "A bicycle, certainly, but not the bicycle. I am familiar with forty-two different impressions left by tyres."
2. "A criminal who was capable of such a thought is a man whom I should be proud to do business with."
3. "I must take the view, your Grace, that when a man embarks upon a crime, he is morally guilty of any other crime which may spring from it."
4. "In the meantime I will do a little quiet work at your own doors, and perhaps the scent is not so cold but that two old hounds like Watson and myself may get a sniff of it."
5. "It is impossible as I state it, and therefore I must in some respect have stated it wrong."
6. "Let us try to realize what we do know, so as to make the most of it, and to separate the essential from the accidental."
7. "Now having secured the future, we can afford to be more lenient with the past."

8. "This is the second most interesting object that I have seen in the North."

9. "This northern air is invigorating and pleasant, so I propose to spend a few days upon your moors, and to occupy my mind as best I may."
