

The Memoirs of Sherlock Holmes

Adventure XXXV -- The Adventure of the Six Napoleons

Compilation of quizzes from the Diogenes Club and the Crew of the Barque Lone Star

1.	According to Holmes, what is the most valuable institution, if you only know how to use it?
2.	According to Lestrade, what is the senseless at that can occur from time to time?
3.	Who was the first victim of the unusual burglary of his office on Kennington Road and his office at Lower Brixton?
4.	Who was the sculpture of the original famous head of Napoleon?
5.	Who has a shop for the sale of pictures and statues on Kennington Road and experienced the first stolen bust?
6.	Modern French psychologists refer to monomania that is “trifling in character and accompanied by complete sanity in every other way” with what term?
7.	How was the dreadful business of the Abernathy family first noticed by Holmes?
8.	What member of the Central Press Syndicate was also the victim of the unusual burglary?
9.	What additional crime was committed at the home of the member of the Central Press Syndicate?
10.	What was particular about the position of where the bust owned by the member of the Central Press Syndicate was broken?
11.	Who was the man in the photograph?
12.	What was the wholesale price of the Napoleon bust?
13.	With which organization is Pietro Venucci connected?

14.	Outside of whose home was the burglar apprehended?
15.	From whom did Holmes purchase a bust of Napoleon?
16.	What did Holmes find in the sixth Napoleon?
17.	How was Pietro Venucci killed?
18.	How much does Holmes offer for the last bust?
19.	Who owned the bust the black pearl was hidden in?
20.	What did Holmes use to break the last bust?
21.	Which one of the following was not found in Pietro Venucci's pockets? an apple, a map of London, a knife, a photograph
22.	How many sections of London do Holmes and Watson pass through in their pursuit?
23.	What was lost at the Dacre Hotel?
24.	Who was Napoleon's biggest admirer?
25.	In this story, what was Holmes' weapon of choice?
26.	How was the murder weapon described?
27.	Does Mr. Hudson appear in this case?
28.	Whose pen trelled shrilly over the foolscap?
29.	What beverage is served?
30.	What was the wholesale source of the Napoleon statues?
31.	The suggested retail price of the busts of Napoleon was?
32.	What other case, other than the Abernetty Family, is referred to during this story?
33.	According to the 1904 English Police Code, what were the five essential conditions to constitute the crime of burglary?
34.	What is the less polite term for a "hereditary family injury"?

Answers
1.	According to Holmes, what is the most valuable institution, if you only know how to use it?	The Press
2.	According to Lestrade, what is the senseless at that can occur from time to time?	Hooliganism
3.	Who was the first victim of the unusual burglary of his office on Kennington Road and his office at Lower Brixton?	Dr. Barnicot
4.	Who was the sculpture of the original famous head of Napoleon?	Devine
5.	Who has a shop for the sale of pictures and statues on Kennington Road and experienced the first stolen bust?	Morse Hudson
6.	Modern French psychologists refer to monomania that is “trifling in character and accompanied by complete sanity in every other way” with what term?	Idée fixe
7.	How was the dreadful business of the Abernathy family first noticed by Holmes?	By the depth of which the parsley had sunk into the butter on a hot day
8.	What member of the Central Press Syndicate was also the victim of the unusual burglary?	Horace Harker
9.	What additional crime was committed at the home of the member of the Central Press Syndicate?	Murder
10.	What was particular about the position of where the bust owned by the member of the Central Press Syndicate was broken?	It was under a street lamp
11.	Who was the man in the photograph?	Beppo
12.	What was the wholesale price of the Napoleon bust?	Six shillings
13.	With which organization is Pietro Venucci connected?	Mafia
14.	Outside of whose home was the burglar apprehended?	Josiah Brown
15.	From whom did Holmes purchase a bust of Napoleon?	Mr. Sandeford of Reading
16.	What did Holmes find in the sixth Napoleon?	The famous black pearl of the Borgias
17.	How was Pietro Venucci killed?	He was knifed
18.	How much does Holmes offer for the last bust?	10 pounds
19.	Who owned the bust the black pearl was hidden in?	Mr. Sandeford
20.	What did Holmes use to break the last bust?	His hunting crop

21.	Which one of the following was not found in Pietro Venucci's pockets? an apple, a map of London, a knife, a photograph	The knife
22.	How many sections of London do Holmes and Watson pass through in their pursuit?	6 (fashionable, hotel, theatrical, library, commercial, and maritime)
23.	What was lost at the Dacre Hotel?	The Black Pearl of the Borgias
24.	Who was Napoleon's biggest admirer?	Dr. Barnicot
25.	In this story, what was Holmes' weapon of choice?	Loaded hunting crop
26.	How was the murder weapon described?	A horn-handler clasp knife
27.	Does Mr. Hudson appear in this case?	Yes – Morse Hudson
28.	Whose pen trelled shrilly over the foolscap?	Horace Harker
29.	What beverage is served?	Coffee
30.	What was the wholesale source of the Napoleon statues?	Gelder & Co.
31.	The suggested retail price of the busts of Napoleon was?	12 shillings
32.	What other case, other than the Abernetty Family, is referred to during this story?	The Conk Singleton Forgery Case
33.	According to the 1904 English Police Code, what were the five essential conditions to constitute the crime of burglary?	The night time, a dwelling house, a breaking, an entry, felonious intent
34.	What is the less polite term for a "hereditary family injury"?	In this case, probably syphilis as Conan-Doyle wrote his doctoral thesis on that disease.

Dr. Jim Webb & Steve Mason