

His Last Bow

Adventure XLI – The Adventure of Wisteria Lodge

1. Does “being of a social turn” suggest “no charm in the man”?
2. Is there a difference between “within two days” and “the next day”?
3. How does one light an endless cigarette?
4. When did Holmes write his telegram to Allan Brothers?
5. Why did Garcia travel alone? Why didn’t he take his revolver?
6. Why a cold and melancholy walk at Esher rather than take a trap?
7. Isn’t “Hynes Hynes” an even more unusual name than “Nathan Garrideb”?
8. When would Henderson encounter folks closely enough to lash at?
9. Should Henderson and/or Lopez have noticed that they were being followed by both Warner and a plain-clothes man? How did the followers both keep up with the carriage?
10. Do stout, puffy, red men climb trees?
11. Were the children also staying at the Hotel Escurial in Madrid?
12. Why could Miss Brunett not kill Henderson more readily than Garcia?
13. Wouldn’t this case have been solved without Holmes’s involvement? Are there any other such cases in the Canon?

Ralph Edwards, BSI

April 08, 1994