

His Last Bow

Adventure XLII – The Adventure of the Bruce-Partington Plans

1. Was the fog yellow or was it brown?
2. Did Holmes play de Lassus on the violin?
3. Did Holmes really bite his nails?
4. Why did Brooks or Woodhouse not use the opportunity?
5. Didn't England have interurban trams on country lanes?
6. Why did Mycroft send a telegram if he was coming at once?
7. When and for what reason was Mycroft's previous visit?
8. Why didn't Mycroft summon Holmes?
9. Was Watson's initial judgment in STUD (Knowledge of astronomy – Nil) accurate?
10. Cadogan West was found dead on Tuesday. Would an inquest of such importance be over in two days?
11. How could Sidney Johnson close the office without a key? Did he ever arrive at work before Sir James?
12. Why did Holmes need to ask Watson if he had eaten?
13. Was it four feet out, down, or diagonal?
14. Was there a good reason for Mycroft to be brought to Baker Street again?
15. Having removed or destroyed his dangerous correspondence, why did Oberstein leave his newspaper advertisements?
16. What did Lestrade do on Friday?

17. What was the purpose of having only a light dinner?
18. What bird was Holmes looking for?
19. What was meant by the statement regarding English gentlemen?
20. Why didn't Lestrade caution the Colonel? (Anything you say may be held against you?)
21. Why the repetition about gold or notes?
22. Why the Charing Cross Hotel?
23. Why only a 15-year sentence for murder?
24. What details would be anachronistic today?

Ralph Edwards, BSI

April 29, 1994