

His Last Bow

Adventure XLII -- The Adventure of the Bruce-Partington Plans

Compilation of quizzes from the Diogenes Club and the Crew of the Barque Lone Star

1.	On a dreary day in November 1895, who presents Holmes with an intriguing investigation?
2.	Where is Arthur Cadogan West's body found?
3.	What is the first clue that leads Holmes to suspect foul play?
4.	Where was Cadogan West apparently going on the evening of his death?
5.	Why does Holmes believe that Cadogan West did not die from a train accident?
6.	Why is Cadogan West's death important enough for Mycroft to leave his home and visit Holmes in person?
7.	When Holmes pays a visit to Sir James Walter, the official guardian of the secret paper, what does Holmes find?
8.	Who gives Holmes important information as to the emotional state of Cadogan West the night he died?
9.	What information leads Holmes to locate the man responsible for the caper?
10.	Why does Holmes focus his investigation on Hugo Oberstein?
11.	In what three other adventures do we find Violets?
12.	In what other adventure do we find Hugo Oberstein?
13.	In what other adventure does Holmes show little interest in a knighthood?
14.	What was the relationship between Sir James Walter and Colonel Valentine Walter?

15.	Outside which station did Mycroft and Lestrade meet Holmes and Watson en route to Caulfield Gardens?
16.	How does Holmes deduce West was not murdered on the train?
17.	Where was Sir James Walter on the night Cadogan West was killed?
18.	“You can write me down an ass this time, Watson, this was not the _____ that I was looking for.”
19.	What was Holmes surprised to learn was not found in Cadogan West’s pockets?
20.	How many papers relating to the Bruce-Partington were found in Cadogan West’s pockets?
21.	The Bruce-Partington plans were designs for?

Answers
1.	On a dreary day in November 1895, who presents Holmes with an intriguing investigation?	His brother Mycroft
2.	Where is Arthur Cadogan West's body found?	Arthur Cadogan West's body is found on the train track outside of Aldgate Station on the Underground system.
3.	What is the first clue that leads Holmes to suspect foul play?	There is no train ticket found in his pocket.
4.	Where was Cadogan West apparently going on the evening of his death?	Cadogan West was going to the theatre, as there were two tickets in his pocket to a performance at Woolwich Theatre
5.	Why does Holmes believe that Cadogan West did not die from a train accident?	There was no sign of blood on the tracks; therefore, the body must have been moved.
6.	Why is Cadogan West's death important enough for Mycroft to leave his home and visit Holmes in person?	Found on Cadogan West's body are the British government's secret plans
7.	When Holmes pays a visit to Sir James Walter, the official guardian of the secret paper, what does Holmes find?	Sir James had died that morning
8.	Who gives Holmes important information as to the emotional state of Cadogan West the night he died?	His fiancé, Miss Violet Westbury
9.	What information leads Holmes to locate the man responsible for the caper?	A list of suspects from Mycroft
10.	Why does Holmes focus his investigation on Hugo Oberstein?	The Underground train stops a mere four feet away from the backstairs window of Oberstein's residence.
11.	In what three other adventures do we find Violets?	Violet Hunter in The Copper Beeches, Violet Smith in The Solitary Cyclist, and Violet De Merville in The Illustrious Client
12.	In what other adventure do we find Hugo Oberstein?	The Second Stain
13.	In what other adventure does Holmes show little interest in a knighthood?	The Three Garridebs
14.	What was the relationship between Sir James Walter and Colonel Valentine Walter?	They were brothers

15.	Outside which station did Mycroft and Lestrade meet Holmes and Watson en route to Caulfield Gardens?	Gloucester station
16.	How does Holmes deduce West was not murdered on the train?	There was no blood found around the tracks; so he was carried to that spot.
17.	Where was Sir James Walter on the night Cadogan West was killed?	At Admiral Sinclair's house
18.	"You can write me down an ass this time, Watson, this was not the _____ that I was looking for."	Bird
19.	What was Holmes surprised to learn was not found in Cadogan West's pockets?	A train ticket
20.	How many papers relating to the Bruce-Partington were found in Cadogan West's pockets?	7
21.	The Bruce-Partington plans were designs for?	A submarine

Dr. Jim Webb & Steve Mason