

The Casebook of Sherlock Holmes Adventure LI -- The Adventure of the Creeping Man

Compilation of quizzes from the Diogenes Club and the Crew of the Barque Lone Star

1.	Who requested Holmes' assistance?	Trevor Bennett – the professor's assistant
2.	What sequence became of immediate importance to Holmes?	The diary dates indicates a cycle of nine days
3.	Where did Professor Presbury travel on his unannounced fortnight trip?	Prague
4.	How was the professor's assistant to know which correspondence he was not to open?	They had a cross marked under the stamp
5.	Whose face did Professor Presbury's daughter see in window?	Professor Presbury
6.	How did Mr. Bennett get the London address?	Obtained from the professor's blotting paper
7.	What circumstances enticed the professor to seek the solution he did?	Professor Murphy's daughter refuses to marry him
8.	On what subject does Holmes propose to write a monograph?	How dogs reflect the personality of their masters and the atmosphere of their master's homes
9.	Where did Holmes & Watson have tea before taking the early train to town?	Chequers
10.	For what was Mr. Bennet looking when he stumbled upon a little wooded box?	Cannula – a small tube used to drain fluid from the body
11.	What is a Langur?	Great black-faced monkey of the Himalayan slopes
12.	What was the name of the person in Europe who sent the serum of the black-faced langur to Professor Presbury?	Lowenstein
13.	Where did Mr. Bennett find the address from where the packages are originating in London?	Blotting-paper

14.	What was the name of the university where Professor Presbury lectured?	Camford
15.	Where did Professor Presbury travel to for a fortnight?	Prague
16.	Holmes observed that Presbury's knuckles were _____ and _____	Thick and horny
17.	On occasion Trevor Bennett was called?	Jack
18.	What was the most important information Holmes gleaned from the Professor's diary?	The dates
19.	How old was Professor Presbury at the time the adventure took place?	61 years old
20.	Holmes suggest he may write a small monograph on what subject ?	The uses of dogs in the work of the detective
21.	Always look at the _____ first, Watson. Then cuffs, trouser-knees, and boots.	Hands
22.	Who is Roy ?	Professor Presbury's dog

Answer
1.	Who requested Holmes' assistance?	Trevor Bennett – the professor's assistant
2.	What sequence became of immediate importance to Holmes?	The diary dates indicates a cycle of nine days
3.	Where did Professor Presbury travel on his unannounced fortnight trip?	Prague
4.	How was the professor's assistant to know which correspondence he was not to open?	They had a cross marked under the stamp
5.	Whose face did Professor Presbury's daughter see in window?	Professor Presbury
6.	How did Mr. Bennett get the London address?	Obtained from the professor's blotting paper
7.	What circumstances enticed the professor to seek the solution he did?	Professor Murphy's daughter refuses to marry him
8.	On what subject does Holmes propose to write a monograph?	How dogs reflect the personality of their masters and the atmosphere of their master's homes
9.	Where did Holmes & Watson have tea before taking the early train to town?	Chequers
10.	For what was Mr. Bennet looking when he stumbled upon a little wooded box?	Cannula – a small tube used to drain fluid from the body
11.	What is a Langur?	Great black-faced monkey of the Himalayan slopes
12.	What was the name of the person in Europe who sent the serum of the black-faced langur to Professor Presbury?	Lowenstein
13.	Where did Mr. Bennett find the address from where the packages are originating in London?	Blotting-paper
14.	What was the name of the university where Professor Presbury lectured?	Camford
15.	Where did Professor Presbury travel to for a fortnight?	Prague
16.	Holmes observed that Presbury's knuckles were _____ and _____	Thick and horny
17.	On occasion Trevor Bennett was called?	Jack
18.	What was the most important information Holmes gleaned from the Professor's diary?	The dates
19.	How old was Professor Presbury at the time the adventure took place?	61 years old
20.	Holmes suggest he may write a small monograph on what subject ?	The uses of dogs in the work of the detective

21.	Always look at the _____ first, Watson. Then cuffs, trouser-knees, and boots.	Hands
22.	Who is Roy ?	Professor Presbury's dog

Dr. Jim Webb & Steve Mason