

LIMERICKS

The Casebook of Sherlock Holmes Adventure LIII – The Adventure of the Three Garridebs

As a name Garrideb was unique,
Evans only pretended to seek.
 He wanted the money,
 (The money was funny.)
And his shot really raised Holmes's pique.

Sandy Kozinn

John Garrideb told Holmes of a strange game
Hoping to find others with his same last name
 He was sent away from home on a wild goose-chase
 Holmes suspected it was a strange untrue case
And Killer Evans gets the blame

Karen Olson

In this story old Watson was shot,
This affected our Holmes quite a lot,
 And although Watson fell,
 It did end jolly well,
'Cause that vile 'Killer' Evans was caught.

Bill Dorn

Garridebs of three will share the pot
If only two found, each will get naught
 Jargon seen so plainly
 Larger sums were gainly
Winter the forger finally caught

Steve Mason

