

The Casebook of Sherlock Holmes

Adventure LIII -- The Adventure of the Three Garridebs

Compilation of quizzes from the Diogenes Club and the Crew of the Barque Lone Star

1.	How does Holmes know that the American John Garrideb has lived in England for an extended period of time?
2.	How does Holmes know that John Garrideb is lying about being from Kansas?
3.	When Watson begins to tell his story about the three Garridebs, what incident does he recall happening concerning Holmes at about the same time?
4.	How does Holmes know that John Garrideb placed the Birmingham newspaper ad himself, and that Howard Garrideb was merely a creation of John Garrideb?
5.	The crime strongly resembles the deceptions employed in what other two adventures written by Dr. Watson?
6.	When entering Nathan Garrideb rooms, what flanked each side of the entrance?
7.	What happens to Dr. Watson when he and Holmes corner Killer Evans?
8.	Why was John Garrideb sent to prison in 1895?
9.	Nathan Garrideb proclaims he "shall be the Hans Sloan of my age." Who is Hans Sloan?
10.	What happens to Nathan Garrideb when he finds out that he will not receive his expected reward?
11.	How old was Holmes when this case occurred?
12.	Nathan Garrideb has a plaster skull labeled "Cro-Magnon." Cro-Magnons date from the Upper Paleolithic period of 10,000 to 35,000 years ago. Where did the name "Cro-Magnon" come from?

13.	Nathan Garrideb collected coins, butterflies, and _____?
14.	What was Nathan Garrideb doing with his right hand when Holmes and Watson called upon him?
15.	Which one of the following was NOT one of the three other names by which John Garrideb was known: Killer Evans, Morecroft, Jenkins, Winter?
16.	“Well, Watson, we can but possess our souls in _____ and see what the hour may bring.”
17.	The London address of Nathan Garrideb was?
18.	What occupation did John Garrideb claim to be when he first met Holmes?
19.	John Garrideb said that Dr. Lysander Starr had been:

Answers
20.	How does Holmes know that the American John Garrideb has lived in England for an extended period of time?	His entire wardrobe is English
21.	How does Holmes know that John Garrideb is lying about being from Kansas?	Holmes mentions an old friend who lived in Topeka and John Garrideb says he also knows the man. However, Holmes had fabricated the character
22.	When Watson begins to tell his story about the three Garridebs, what incident does he recall happening concerning Holmes at about the same time?	Holmes refusal of a knighthood
23.	How does Holmes know that John Garrideb placed the Birmingham newspaper ad himself, and that Howard Garrideb was merely a creation of John Garrideb?	In placing the ad, John Garrideb uses the American spellings for three words
24.	The crime strongly resembles the deceptions employed in what other two adventures written by Dr. Watson?	The Red Headed League and The Stock-Broker's Clerk
25.	When entering Nathan Garrideb rooms, what flanked each side of the entrance?	Cases of butterflies and moths
26.	What happens to Dr. Watson when he and Holmes corner Killer Evans?	Evans shoots Watson in the thigh
27.	Why was John Garrideb sent to prison in 1895?	He shot and killed a man over cards
28.	Nathan Garrideb proclaims he "shall be the Hans Sloan of my age." Who is Hans Sloan?	Sir Hans Sloan (1660-1753) was a naturalist, physician, collector and benefactor of the British Museum
29.	What happens to Nathan Garrideb when he finds out that he will not receive his expected reward?	He never recovers from the shock and is placed in a nursing home
30.	How old was Holmes when this case occurred?	48
31.	Nathan Garrideb has a plaster skull labeled "Cro-Magnon." Cro-Magnons date from the Upper Paleolithic period of 10,000 to 35,000 years ago. Where did the name "Cro-Magnon" come from?	Several skeletons of this type were discovered in 1868 in a cave at Cro-Magnon in the Dordogne area of southern France.
32.	Nathan Garrideb collected coins, butterflies, and _____?	Plaster skulls
33.	What was Nathan Garrideb doing with his right hand when Holmes and Watson called upon him?	Polishing a coin with a cloth

34.	Which one of the following was NOT one of the three other names by which John Garrideb was known: Killer Evans, Morecroft, Jenkins, Winter?	Jenkins
35.	“Well, Watson, we can but possess our souls in _____ and see what the hour may bring.”	Patience
36.	The London address of Nathan Garrideb was?	136 Little Ryder Street West
37.	What occupation did John Garrideb claim to be when he first met Holmes?	Counsellor at Law
38.	John Garrideb said that Dr. Lysander Starr had been:	The mayor of Topeka, Kansas

Dr. Jim Webb & Steve Mason