

The Casebook of Sherlock Holmes Adventure LV -- The Adventure of the Three Gables

Compilation of quizzes from the Diogenes Club and the Crew of the Barque Lone Star

1.	How much money would Mary Maberley have made if she had sold her home?
2.	How do the burglars prevent Mrs. Maberley from interfering with their search of the room?
3.	What does Mrs. Maberley manage to retrieve from the burglars before they flee?
4.	What odd demand does the potential buyer specify in the purchase of the house?
5.	Why does Holmes deduce that the manuscript is Douglas Maberley's true story?
6.	Whom does Holmes visit for information in solving the case?
7.	What does Mrs. Maberley plan to do with the profit from the sale of her home?
8.	What deal does Holmes make with Isadora Klein?
9.	The story is loosely based upon an incident in which Conan-Doyle was able to eventually (after 18 years) get the man released after reopening the case. Who was the accused?
10.	What is unique about Holmes' collaboration with the Inspector?
11.	What does Isadora Klein do with the rest of the manuscript?
12.	How does Holmes convince Isadora Klein to receive him?
13.	Who did Holmes suggest that Mrs. Maberly have come to stay in her house with her?
14.	What was the fewest number of pages in Douglas Maberly's manuscript?
15.	What was unusual about the grammar in the fragment of paper that Mrs. Maberly tore from the grasp of the man who attacked her?

16.	What phrase did Holmes use to describe Isadora Klein... the noted adventuress, the belle dame sans merci, OR the mistress of countless royalty?
17.	What was Douglas Maberly's job title?
18.	"It's a _____ thing to tell fibs."
19.	Holmes asked Mrs. Maberly if she happened to have a first folio of _____?
20.	What has just arrived at the home that Holmes thinks may be of interest

Answers
1.	How much money would Mary Maberley have made if she had sold her home?	500 pounds
2.	How do the burglars prevent Mrs. Maberley from interfering with their search of the room?	The burglars chloroform Mrs. Maberley
3.	What does Mrs. Maberley manage to retrieve from the burglars before they flee?	The last page of her son's manuscript
4.	What odd demand does the potential buyer specify in the purchase of the house?	The buyer wants every item inside the home to remain
5.	Why does Holmes deduce that the manuscript is Douglas Maberley's true story?	The writing was so passionate that Maberley changed points of view from "he" to "my"
6.	Whom does Holmes visit for information in solving the case?	Holmes visits Langdale Pike, the local gossip columnist
7.	What does Mrs. Maberley plan to do with the profit from the sale of her home?	Travel around the world
8.	What deal does Holmes make with Isadora Klein?	Holmes will not turn her over to the police if she agrees to give Mrs. Maberley 5000 pounds to travel around the world first class
9.	The story is loosely based upon an incident in which Conan-Doyle was able to eventually (after 18 years) get the man released after reopening the case. Who was the accused?	Slater
10.	What is unique about Holmes' collaboration with the Inspector?	This is the only instance in the Canon in which Holmes collaborates with an unnamed Inspector
11.	What does Isadora Klein do with the rest of the manuscript?	She burns the manuscript
12.	How does Holmes convince Isadora Klein to receive him?	Holmes sends Isadora Klein a note threatening to bring in the police if she refuses to see him
13.	Who did Holmes suggest that Mrs. Maberly have come to stay in her house with her?	Her lawyer

14.	What was the fewest number of pages in Douglas Maberly's manuscript?	245
15.	What was unusual about the grammar in the fragment of paper that Mrs. Maberly tore from the grasp of the man who attacked her?	The 'he' was changed to 'my'
16.	What phrase did Holmes use to describe Isadora Klein... the noted adventuress, the belle dame sans merci, OR the mistress of countless royalty?	belle dame sans merci
17.	What was Douglas Maberly's job title?	Attache at Rome
18.	"It's a _____ thing to tell fibs."	Wicked
19.	Holmes asked Mrs. Maberly if she happened to have a first folio of _____?	Shakespeare
20.	What has just arrived at the home that Holmes thinks may be of interest	Douglas Maberley's trunks with his personal belongings

Dr. Jim Webb & Steve Mason