

The Casebook of Sherlock Holmes

Adventure LIX – The Adventure of the Veiled Lodger

1. At what ages and in which years was Holmes active?
2. Why did Holmes retire so early?
3. Which six years did Watson miss?
4. What did Watson do after Holmes retired?
5. Where were the case records kept?
6. Were family honor and famous forebears limited by social class?
7. If the miscreant was known, why was the warning not given personally?
8. Do any other Cases have elements as disparate as a politician, lighthouse, and trained cormorant?
9. Didn't Watson usually change identification data?
10. Where did Watson reside in 1896?
11. Did Watson imitate Dickens with "Merrilow"?
12. Does today's anti-smoking campaign have roots as far back as 1896?
13. How was milk dispensed in those years?
14. Is "these times" a chronic problem for landladies or an economic period?
15. Can a person who is wasting away also be described as full and voluptuous?
16. Does Abbas Parvas seem like an English place name?
17. Was Eugenia to pay for Holmes' services?
18. Is 3 p.m. considered early afternoon?
19. When do lions roar?
20. Would a lion's paw crack a skull?
21. How do felines attack their prey?

22. What had Allahabad to do with this case?
23. Is Montrachet appropriate for a pick-up lunch?
24. Is the broken armchair appropriate?
25. Why was the husband's photo kept?
26. With raw meat available, was human killing likely?

Ralph Edwards, BSI

August 05, 1994