

The Casebook of Sherlock Holmes

Adventure LIX -- The Adventure of the Veiled Lodger

Compilation of quizzes from the Diogenes Club and the Crew of the Barque Lone Star

1.	What name does Mrs. Ronder write on a piece of paper to entice Holmes to take her case?
2.	What is the name of the lion that mauled Mrs. Ronder?
3.	Why was the lion fed only by Mr. and Mrs. Ronder?
4.	What two facts led Holmes to believe that another man was involved in that tragic night?
5.	Why had Mrs. Ronder turned against her lover?
6.	How did Leonardo make Mr. Ronder's attack look as if it was caused by the lion?
7.	What does Holmes fear when Mrs. Ronder tells him that the case is closed?
8.	What does Mrs. Ronder send Holmes two days after her confession?
9.	Why does Mrs. Ronder want to make a confession after the tragedy?
10.	Who requests that Holmes take Mrs. Ronder's case?
11.	What was the reaction of the editor when Conan Doyle submitted this for publication?
12.	Who was described as, "a thin, yellow-haired man"
13.	What did Mrs. Ronder cry out just after she was attacked?
14.	"The ways of fate are indeed hard to understand. If there is not some _____ hereafter, then the world is a cruel jest."
15.	Who got a glimpse of Mrs. Ronder's face while she was peeping out of an upper window?
16.	What Mrs. Ronder's first name?
17.	Watson says, "...Ronder was a huge porcine person..." What does 'porcine' mean?

Answers
1.	What name does Mrs. Ronder write on a piece of paper to entice Holmes to take her case?	Abbas Parva, the name of the village where the tragedy occurred
2.	What is the name of the lion that mauled Mrs. Ronder?	Sahara King
3.	Why was the lion fed only by Mr. and Mrs. Ronder?	Mrs. Ronder believed that the lion would not attack the person who fed him
4.	What two facts led Holmes to believe that another man was involved in that tragic night?	According to the police report, a man was shouting just at the time Mrs. Ronder was attacked, but Mr. Ronder had apparently been attacked first and killed. If that were the case, Mr. Ronder could not have been the one shouting. Holmes was also curious as to why the lion returned to its cage rather than escape
5.	Why had Mrs. Ronder turned against her lover?	He was too frightened to come to her rescue when the lion attacked
6.	How did Leonardo make Mr. Ronder's attack look as if it was caused by the lion?	Leonardo designed a club to resemble a lion's paw. It was made with five steel nails pointed outward and spaced like claws
7.	What does Holmes fear when Mrs. Ronder tells him that the case is closed?	Holmes fears that Mrs. Ronder is contemplating suicide
8.	What does Mrs. Ronder send Holmes two days after her confession?	An empty bottle of prussic acid, which contained the poison she used to commit suicide
9.	Why does Mrs. Ronder want to make a confession after the tragedy?	Mrs. Ronder is dying and wants to tell her story. She is also experiencing nightmares over the incident
10.	Who requests that Holmes take Mrs. Ronder's case?	Mrs. Ronder's landlady, Mrs. Merrilow

11.	What was the reaction of the editor when Conan Doyle submitted this for publication?	Requested another story
12.	Who was described as, "a thin, yellow-haired man"	Young Edmunds, of the Berkshire Constabulary
13.	What did Mrs. Ronder cry out just after she was attacked?	Coward
14.	"The ways of fate are indeed hard to understand. If there is not some _____ hereafter, then the world is a cruel jest."	Compensation
15.	Who got a glimpse of Mrs. Ronder's face while she was peeping out of an upper window?	The milkman
16.	What Mrs. Ronder's first name?	Eugenia
17.	Watson says, "...Ronder was a huge porcine person..." What does 'porcine' mean?	Resembling a pig

Dr. Jim Webb & Steve Mason