The Casebook of Sherlock Holmes Adventure LX – The Adventure of Shoscombe Old Place

Why are human bones burnt in a fire?
Is the old woman's health really dire?
 Is a dog really cunning?
 Will the horse win the running?
Who's telling the truth? Who's a liar?

Sandy Kozinn

Sir Robert lived with his widowed sister and never wed
In debt but with a winning horse to get him out of the red
 His sis was behaving oddly of late
 All her old favorites she now seems to hate
Holmes figures she's worth more live than dead

Karen Olson

'Twas no doubt that the Prince would soon win,
Yet Sir Robert could not raise a grin,
 For he was in debt,
 And must win his bet,
Lest he ended up in the dust bin.

Bill Dorn

Prince will run for the family farm
Mason believes one has come to harm
 The dog given away
 Skeleton does betray
The horse wins and is the good luck charm

Steve Mason
