Chronology

Baring-Gould places the dating of the story at Tuesday, May 6 to Wednesday, 7, 1902 making it 50th of the 60. This means that Holmes is 46 and Watson 48.

Christopher Morley Says

“As in Silver Blaze, a horse and a dog are the explanation of the mystery: and here also there were legal anomalies that may puzzle students of law. Dr. Watson was always interested in horse-racing: in order to find out what was happening at the training quarters of the horse Shoscombe Prince (entered in the Derby) he and Holmes pretended to be fishermen and catch some trout for their supper.”

Dummies Short Summary

“Sir Robert Norberton has everything riding on his horse winning a race. Winning will save him from financial ruin. But why is he visiting an ancient family crypt at night? And how do you explain the human bone in the furnace? Sherlock’s love of dogs holds the key to solving this case.”

How Many Words

At 6,301 words SHOS has the 9th most words (#1 is VEIL – 4,499, #56 is NAVL – 12,701)

Classifying This Case

This case is one of fear of mounting debt. Holmes solved the problem but the debt was paid because of a winning horse.

Holmes And Watson – Personal Information

Holmes and Watson are both residing at 221B.

Dramatis Personae

Many love it when a character in the cast has 4 legs.

- Sir Robert Norburton, an adventuresome raiser of race horses.
- Lady Beatrice Falder, Sir Robert's sister who lives with him at Shoscombe and raises prize-winning spaniels.
- John Mason, head trainer for Sir Robert. Brought the case to Holmes.
- Carrie Evans, maid of Lady Beatrice.
- Norlett Evans, Carrie's husband. An actor.
- Sam Brewer, a money lender. Once horse-whipped by Robert. Now his chief creditor.
- Josiah Barnes, owner of the Green Dragon Inn. He took Lady Beatrice's spaniel.
- Sandy Bain, Jockey for Robert.
- Harvey Mason, son of John.
- Stephens, butler to Robert and Beatrice.
- Shoshcombe Prince, the fastest colt in England.
- Half Bro. To The Prince, although very similar in appearance to Prince, not nearly as fleet of foot.
- Merivale, of the Yard. A friend of Holmes.

Quotable Sherlock

- “By the way, Watson, you know something of racing?”
- (Watson) “I ought to. I pay for it with about half my wound pension.”
- “Things seem to be of a curiously mixed character. But that should surely help us. It is only the colourless, uneventful case which is hopeless.”
- “You do occasionally find a carrion crow among the eagles.”
- “Dogs don’t make mistakes.”

Holmes’ Fee

No fee is mentioned, but since Norburton got enough money to settle his debt, Holmes should have received a reasonable fee.

Unrecorded Cases

- The St. Pancreas Case
- The coiner Holmes ran down by the zinc and copper filings in his cuff

Sherlock Holmes On The Big And The Little Screen

- 1968 Shoscombe Old Place with Peter Cushing as an episode in his Sherlock Holmes series. This episode is lost.
